Re: McLaughlin, Trevor JayJune 27, 2014*Page 2

Supporting Evidence: On June 26, 2014, the undersigned officer attempted to locate Mr. McLaughlin at his last reported address. Contact with an occupant at that location revealed Mr. McLaughlin did not reside there, and had not resided there since he was last released from custody over 1 month ago.

- 4 Standard Condition # 10: The defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view of the probation officer.

Supporting Evidence: By failing to report his current residence, Mr. McLaughlin is prohibiting the probation officer from contacting him at his home.

- 5 Special Condition # 18: You shall reside in a residential reentry center (RRC) for a period of up to 180 days. You shall abide by the rules and requirements of the facility and shall participate in programs offered by the facility at the direction of the supervising officer.

Supporting Evidence: Mr. McLaughlin was scheduled to enter the Port of Hope Residential Reentry Center (RRC) on June 25, 2014. After the offender failed to report to the probation office on the same date, multiple phone messages were left for Mr. McLaughlin directing him to report to the Port of Hope RRC. However, he failed to report as directed.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court issue a warrant for the arrest of the offender to answer the allegations contained in this petition.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
